

SHIRAZ 13,5% 2016
WINE OF ORIGIN SWARTLAND – WINE OF SOUTH AFRICA FINE WINES OF EXPLORATION

Visual Analysis:

Colour

purple red
ruby	✓ garnet
orange red

Reflections

violet	✓
purple red
ruby
garnet
orange red
carmine red

Structure

good	✓ strong
great

Olfactory Analysis: blackberry, cherry, dried fig, stewed fruit, mushroom, clove, cheese and caramel

Gustative Analysis:

Alcoholic dryness

light warm (10% - 11%)
medium warm (11% - 13,5%)	✓
warm (13,5% - 15%)
alcoholic (15% - 20%)

Salivation

scarcely fresh (little salivation) quite fresh (some salivation)
fresh (abundant salivation)	✓ acidulous(abundant salivation/sense of tartness)

Bitterness

scarcely bitter (grape) quite bitter (grape & barriques) bitter (grape & barriques)

Astringency

scarcely tannic (light astringent sensation)
quite tannic (perceivable, pleasant astringent sensation)	✓ tannic (dry and astringent sensation) astringent (drying and rough sensation)

Softness

scarcely soft (immature) quite soft (young or ready) soft (structured and matured)	✓ velvety (high concentration alcohol /glycerine)

Sweetness

dry (sugar residue 1 to 5 g/l) medium dry (sugar residue 10 to 20 g/l) medium sweet (20 to 50 g/l) sweet (100 to 160 g/l)

Mineral notes

scarcely taste (weak sensation) quite tasty (well balanced sensation) tasty (light and pleasant salty taste)

Structure

weak (modest structure)
full (well balanced structure)	✓ vigorous (perfectly balanced structure) heavy (excessive structure)

Guglielmo Rocchiccioli
Sommelier

guglielmo.rocchiccioli@gmail.com

www.sommelierguglielmorocchiccioli.com/blog/

Gustative Aromatic Persistence: 5/6 seconds

Aftertaste: blackberry and stewed fruit flavoured

WINE-FOOD COMBINATION: Steak Tartare with French fries

MY PERSONAL OPINION: the aromas are easily associated to black and red fruit; it is pleasant to drink, the body is not so strong and finally the wine is really appreciable